Columbia Team Has Work-out With Stuyvesant

Varsity Men All in Trim for Amherst Game Tomorrow Afternoon

Columbia's eleven, with its regular line-up practically intact, held a light scrimmage yesterday against the Stuyvesant High School team, and passed the schoolboys along to the freshmen after a short session. This easy afternoon's work makes the entire week's record one of comparative relaxation instead of intensive training in preparation for the Amherst game tomorrow.

The coaches, however, of the Amherst game, announced that the members of the eleven, under this week's tender treatment, had been practically eliminated, and no member of the team that faced Williams last week is expected to be kept out of play against Amherst.

Houlahan has been under a doctor's surveillance, but will undoubtedly be at fullback again. Rosen, although troubled with a stiff knee a few days ago, seems to be entirely ready to act as quarter.

Columbia expects a game to-morrow of somewhat the same type as last week's. The quarterback of the Amherst eleven, like Boynton, of Williams, is reported to be the individual star of the Bay State aggregation, with equal ability at kicking, passing and covering distance with the ball. In addition, Amherst has recorded victories over Walsgan and Union.

Michigan Alumni Favor Game With Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Steps to arrange a post-season football game between Michigan and Chicago, to be played at Stagg Field on December 1, for a war charity, were taken here today. The University of Michigan Association of Chicago adopted resolutions favoring the game and appointed a committee of seven to make every effort to bring it about. F. S. Thomas, an attorney, who was named chairman, left tonight for Ann Arbor, for a conference with Phil G. Bartelme, director of athletics at Michigan.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 1.—Further support was given here to the movement to arrange a post-season football game between the University of Michigan and the University of Chicago.

Cochran, who today expressed himself in favor of it, "can't help but feel in favor of the game," he said, "but I would like to see the two teams get together."

N. Y. U. Cubs Score Twice on Varsity

New York University's varsity football team suffered the humiliation yesterday of being scored on twice by the strong freshman eleven. The cubs showed unusual strength and smoothness in their play, especially in line plunging. Hunter, Saunders and Bartlett were the stars of the freshman organization. In the offensive drill inside the 10-yard line they consistently tore away in the opposing line.

Only four regulars reported for practice. The rest are either on the hospital list or convalescing from minor injuries. Egan, crack quarterback, was out on account of sickness. Ebbelsfield has developed a charley horse and Buckley has been held out of the game because of two fractured ribs.

The Trinity game will have an added feature in the person of Reinold Wertheim, the well known barytone, who will lead the N. Y. U. students in patriotic songs between the halves.

Cornell Five to Play For College Title

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 1.—It has been definitely decided at Cornell to enter a basketball team in the intercollegiate series with Columbia, Penn. State, Princeton and Dartmouth this winter. Dr. Sharpe's call for candidates for the varsity court team has already been heard, with practice to start early next week on the first of next.

Cornell has two veterans back in Stewart and Kendall and a promising squad of youngsters.

Princeton Tennis Tourney Profitable

PRINCETON, Nov. 1.—As a result of the tennis tournament just completed at Princeton, enough money was collected in entrance fees practically to insure the formation of a tennis team to represent the university. Although no regular members of the team of last year are still in college, some good material was unearthed in the tournament, and the Tiger net players are expected to be able to arrange matches with Harvard and Yale in the spring. A freshman team will also be formed to meet neighboring schoolboy teams.

Princeton students are eagerly awaiting another game of informal varsity football. The contest with the Camp Dix team stirred up a great deal of latent enthusiasm, and the winning of the Tigers gave ground for the possibility that there are unexpected possibilities of strength in this Princeton team. It has been definitely decided that no game will be played against Maine. Another new team is expected to be formed, but there is still a possibility that this game may be arranged for the fall in Tiger town.

Your hosts have been selected by Coach Spaeth to compete in the annual fall regatta on Carnegie Lake. The men have been working daily on the lake since the opening of college. The freshman boat is made up of a number of husky oarsmen and is regarded as the favorite.

Leonard Will Fight At Denver Thanksgiving

DENVER, Nov. 1.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, now commencing his training for the fight with the army, will meet Sailor Kirke here Thanksgiving Day in a ten-round, no-holds-bar, was announced today.

A telegram bringing word that army officials had given Leonard permission to make a Western trip was received here today. Kirke is lightweight champion of the Rocky Mountain region.

Tener Picked To Head League For New Term

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The National League has invited John K. Tener to continue as president of the league, and he has accepted. The same invitation was extended to John Heydler to continue as secretary-treasurer, so at the annual meeting of the league next month in New York the election of those officers will be merely a matter of form. Tener's term may be extended to five years.

When the board of directors of the league met recently to consider the suit of the Baltimore club of the defunct Federal League a committee of three, William F. Baker, of Philadelphia; Harry Hempstead, of New York, and Charles Ebbets, of Brooklyn, was appointed to ask Mr. Tener to accept a reelection to office. That was done last Friday, and Mr. Tener accepted.

Mr. Baker to-day made announcement of the proceedings, and added that every club president was in favor of reelecting Mr. Tener. All the directors declared that Mr. Tener had proven to be the right man for the office at a critical period of the league's existence.

Fordham's Coach Bolsters Line for Georgetown Game

Coach McCaffery is still directing his efforts to bolstering the Fordham line for the hard game with Georgetown on Election Day. Yesterday the varsity and scrub teams engaged in their third tussle of the week and the regular and substitute forwards had a big offensive and defensive drill.

The linemen were instructed yesterday in making openings and in carrying through their interference for the backs, as a strengthened front will give Fordham's fast backs the support they need. Abbott the stocky guard, was in the first line-up yesterday and if he continues his good playing he is sure to start against Georgetown.

The regulars scored twice in the scrum yesterday, but only after some hard playing. Frick and Galligan made the touchdowns. Gilmarin played quarter yesterday.

Colgate will not play Fordham on Thanksgiving Day. A telegram was sent to the school which stated that the Colgate advisory board was unable to accommodate Fordham. Manager Delehanty has been trying unsuccessfully for over a month to fill this date. Notre Dame and several big colleges in the East were unable to play because of prearranged games. It is likely that an eleven from an army regiment will be secured for Thanksgiving Day.

Cornell Team Has Drill on Defence

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The Cornell football team completed its hard work for the week this afternoon in a defensive scrimmage designed to test the strength of the lines, and in a signal drill, in which a large number of forward passes were executed smoothly and with great speed.

The largest injury list of the season was in evidence, with Ackert, left tackle, Nethercott, quarterback, and Pendleton, fullback, limping on the sidelines. The coaches, however, believe that all three men will be in competition by Saturday. Nethercott is suffering from an injury similar to that which has kept Carry, his predecessor at quarterback, out of the line-up. In case he should be unable to play Saturday, Sharpe will have to fall back upon his third string quarter, Goldman.

Thomas was worked out as varsity quarter yesterday, with Schmidt substituting at left tackle, and G. Minder playing fullback. Although the scrub playing the ball over the ten-yard line, the varsity did likewise and put up a better exhibition than yesterday.

The patchwork backfield did not show to advantage, but the work of the line was a distinct improvement and was most encouraging.

Stevens in Hard Drill For Worcester Game

A full squad pounded through the final drill in preparation for the game with Worcester on Saturday. All of the men were laid low last week were out and showed the benefit of the four-day rest.

Goodale was in especially good form in his punting and Carlson put up a fine game in the scrimmage work.

Howard, who played on Boys' High two years back, came out and should earn a place on the varsity before the close of the year.

If Benny Leonard's duties at Camp Upton do not detain him too long after his injured hand mends he may arrange to meet Charlie White, the Chicagoan.

Boxing News and Notes

When the Frawley law passes out, on November 15, putting an end to legalized boxing in this state, New York City will cease to be the mecca of the boxing game. For many years it has been the centre of Flistiana, with all of the prominent boxers flocking here.

But most of the top liners, leery of what will happen here under the proposed club plan and uncertain whether boxing under any guise whatever will be permitted, are preparing for an exodus to other parts; so that even should the club plan be permitted by the authorities, it is very doubtful if good bouts with real top-notchers will be seen here again soon.

To all appearances, New Orleans will, for a time at least, become the gathering point of the knights of the padded mitts. The Southern city is favored for many reasons. The winter season is just opening there, and in addition to racing, there will be the annual Mardi Gras, which always attracts many people. And the gathering at New Orleans will probably be the Supreme Court decision handed down the other day in favor of oral testing.

Some of the local boys are already packing up their gloves, managers and packing up their necessities for the trip. Johnny Dundee has decided to forsake New York and try out the game in the Crescent City, where he is well known and popular.

But while boxing will be dead, or nearly so at best, in New York, nearby states will continue the sport. It is expected to go on in New Jersey, where now is the best hope New Yorkers have now is that boxing will be legalized in New Jersey this year. A bill was started last year in the Legislature, and, although defeated, it is expected to go through this year. If it does, Jersey will be the scene of many contests, and the Jerseyites who have been coming to Gotham for their boxing for years will, in turn, entertain many New Yorkers on their shores.

It is the prevailing belief that even though Governor Whitman does not interfere with the club plan the game will not flourish here. The experience of the old days indicates that the club owners cannot be relied on to protect their own game.

If Benny Leonard's duties at Camp Upton do not detain him too long after his injured hand mends he may arrange to meet Charlie White, the Chicagoan.
